

WAR ON RULES IS RENEWED

Hughes of New Jersey Starts Controversy

THE SPEAKER IS LENIENT

A Statement Made by Underwood of Alabama—Plan a Problem to Be Adjusted by the Democrats.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Renewal of the fight on the rules which signalize the past session was precipitated yesterday by Representative Hughes of New Jersey. The point raised was whether a bill considered in regular order last calendar Wednesday could be taken up again yesterday.

The question under consideration was whether a bill for the codification and revision of the laws relating to the judiciary, consideration of which occupied all last Wednesday, should again be taken up yesterday simply on the call of the chairman of the committee reporting the measure.

Representative Fitzgerald of New York led the Democratic side of the House in opposing consideration of the bill. He declared that the House under the rules could decide for itself what business it shall consider.

It was declared by the Democratic members that the judiciary bill, which is lengthy, might be used as a buffer to prevent the House from taking up any other bills from many calendar Wednesdays to come.

"TAFT BREAKING UP SOUTH."

Col. Mosby Says He Is Most Popular of Any President.

Hartford, Conn., Dec. 15.—President Taft is steadily breaking up the politically solid South, said Col. John S. Mosby, the Confederate guerrilla, who is spending the week here and who is enthusiastic over the selection of Edward Douglas White of Louisiana for the chief justiceship of the United States supreme court.

"I want to say right here, that not in my recollection of the presidents, and I have known them all personally since John Taylor's time, have we had a man in the president's chair who is so popular in the South, as well as in the North, as President Taft."

VERMONT GRANGE ELECTS OLD OFFICERS

C. F. Smith of Morrisville Again at the Head of the Organization—Resolutions Adopted Yesterday Afternoon.

Burlington, Dec. 15.—At the closing session of the Vermont state grange, which was held to-day, the officers who were elected yesterday were installed. The list of officers is the same as last year, and it is as follows: Master, C. F. Smith, Morrisville; overseer, W. N. Cady, Middlebury; lecturer, E. H. Hatlett, St. Johnsbury; center, steward, M. B. Roberts, Rupert; assistant steward, G. C. Flint, Randolph; chaplain, R. H. Holmes, Shoreham; treasurer, F. B. Pier, Brattleboro; secretary, A. A. Priest, Randolph; gatekeeper, L. H. Morgan, South Woodstock; crier, Mrs. C. F. Smith, Morrisville; pomona, Mrs. W. N. Cady, Middlebury; flora, Mrs. H. W. Sargent, Brattleboro; lady assistant steward, Mrs. G. C. Flint, Randolph; executive committee, H. W. Sargent (chairman), Brattleboro; D. H. Morse, Randolph; H. M. Farnham, East Montpelier; S. L. Peck, Ira, secretary; master and secretary ex-officio members.

The committee on credentials reported a total registration of 206, the largest attendance in the history of the grange. This does not include many other grangers present but having no voice in the proceedings. Sixty-nine grangers of the 202 had two delegates each and 92 were represented by one. Fourteen of 24 pomona granges sent delegates.

The grange yesterday afternoon passed resolutions endorsing the act of the legislature in establishing an agricultural school, and it renewed its stand favoring a referendum on the liquor law. It united with the national grange in favoring an oleomargarine law, a parole post law, direct election of United States senators and opposition to ship subsidies. Last night the sixth degree was worked on 100 candidates.

The grange yesterday afternoon telegraphed the legislature the following: "Resolved, That the Vermont state grange do earnestly recommend and urge that the Vermont legislature now in session pass the bill to amend the constitution that the government impose an income tax."

ON DECEMBER 20.

Kelher Will Be Sentenced and Exceptions Filed.

Boston, Dec. 15.—Judge Hale, in the United States circuit court announced yesterday that he would pass sentence on December 20, on William J. Kelher, who was convicted last spring of aiding and abetting George W. Coleman in misappropriating the funds of the National City Bank of Cambridge.

Exceptions to the verdict will be filed at the same time and an appeal taken to the court of appeals and the supreme court. Kelher will be required to file a new bail bond at the time, which, if accepted, will allow him to remain free until the exceptions are decided.

Collision at Sea.

Boston, Dec. 15.—A wireless dispatch received here at 9 a. m. yesterday stated that the four-masted schooner General E. S. Greeley ran down and sank another schooner in Pellock Rip since early yesterday. The crew of the sunken schooner was saved and later taken on board the steamer H. F. Dimock, bound for Boston.

BREAKS UP A COLD IN SEVERAL HOURS

Most Effective and Harmless Way to Cure a Severe Cold and End All Grippe Misery.

There is not one grain of quinine in Pape's Cold Compound, which, when taken every two hours, until three consecutive doses are taken, will surely end the grippe and break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs.

It promptly relieves the most miserable neuralgia pains, headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, catarrhal affections, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic aches.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

Take this harmless compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world which will cure your cold or end grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any drug gist in the world can supply.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

At the Opera House To-night, "Alias Jimmy Valentine."

When "Alias Jimmy Valentine" began its long run at Wallack's theatre, New York, the press came out with a set of the most glowing reviews that ever echoed the premiere of a popular play. So unanimous was the approval of the work of Mr. Armstrong, playwright, and the players who appeared, that the management exhibited a water set in the lobby of the theatre offering to give it away to the first man who felt called upon to "knock the show." The water set remained unclaimed for throughout the original New York run of an entire year, and was again placed on view when the play resumed its run, interrupted by the hot weather, at the commencement of the present season.

Barre will be one of the first cities outside of New York and Chicago to see this remarkable "upknockable" play. The interesting detective-thief play will appear here to-night, December 15.

NORTHFIELD.

Rev. A. H. Webb officiated Saturday at the wedding of George Kirby and Bertha Quimby, both of this town.

Mrs. Sophia K. Richmond observed her 90th birthday anniversary Tuesday at the home of her son, C. S. Richmond, when a family gathering was held. Mrs. Richmond is in excellent health.

Mrs. Fred C. Dyke died Monday at her home, from a shock of apoplexy, which she suffered ten days previous. She had been in poor health for a number of years. Mrs. Dyke was born in Pomfret, April 28, 1831. She is survived by her husband. The funeral was held to-day, Rev. A. H. Webb officiating, and interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

Elvira A. Jones, aged 53 years, died December 7 at the home of her brother, Henry A. Jones, in the Center village, where she has lived for the past twenty years. For two years she suffered greatly with rheumatism, which crippled her. She is survived by her brother and a sister, Mrs. Staples. The funeral was held Friday, Rev. A. H. Webb officiating, and interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

"Judge Elisha W. Keyes, a native of this town, where he was born January 23, 1825, died recently at his home in Madison, Wis. He left Vermont when young and held many responsible positions in Madison, where he settled for the profession of law in 1850, and had since remained. He served two terms as district attorney, as judge, postmaster, was first Republican mayor of that place, chairman of the Republican state committee, delegate and chairman of the Wisconsin delegation to the Republican national conventions in 1872-73-74, served as a member of the Wisconsin assembly and was twice barely defeated for United States senator. He was also an authoritative writer of reminiscence and political history.

REAL BATTLE IN MEXICO

Conflicting Reports as to the Outcome

REBELS FOUGHT NAVARRO

The Government Forces Took No Prisoners—All the Rebel Wounded and Captured Were Bayoneted.

Rancho Santiago, near Pedernales, Dec. 13, via El Paso, Tex., Dec. 15.—General Navarro's official report places the number of insurgent dead in Sunday's battle at eighty, but independent investigation cannot confirm this, nor can the report be denied owing to the limitations placed by military necessity on such investigations. The Associated Press correspondent saw thirty-three dead, but generally was unable to determine to which side they belonged, Navarro admits he lost in killed, two officers and twelve men and twenty-seven seriously wounded. The insurgents place their own dead at nineteen and their wounded at one. These figures may be depended on as the minimum. There was a fighting Tuesday as was erroneously reported, nor was there any yesterday. General Navarro stated he did not pursue the enemy in Sunday's battle, because he wished to care for his wounded. There is but one doctor with his contingent. Opposed to this statement is the assertion of the revolutionist that he did not pursue because he has been fought to a finish and had exhausted his energy. Navarro took no prisoners—it is contrary to his orders—and in his camp yesterday there were no wounded of the other side. The bayonet had completed the work of the bullet.

A horrible instance of the barbarity of the campaign occurred after the battle. Every man in the hamlet of Cerro Prieto (Dark hill) was brought before the mayor to prove his innocence of participation in the revolt. Thirty could not do this. As fast as their identity became known they were taken out and shot. They are included in the number of dead. Five insurgents who ran out of ammunition and surrendered were bayoneted.

TRY TO BLOCK CANALEJAS.

Carlists and Others Seek to Hold Up Budget—Premier Firm.

Madrid, Dec. 15.—Rumors have been current that there are serious differences between the members of the cabinet, Prime Minister Canalejas states emphatically that there is no division of feeling among the ministers.

One rumor is that the Carlists and other opponents of the government will try to prevent consideration of the budget while they carry out their opposition to the "padlock" bill, which deals with the religious orders. The government is extremely anxious for the passage of the latter measure, and Premier Canalejas has said that it will become law before the end of the year.

In order to effect this, the government has decided to hold sessions of the chamber until the bill is passed. The opposition, however, will seek to have a session lasting only three days and thus prevent the adoption of the bill.

At a largely attended Republican meeting at Santander, ex-Deputy Sol y Ortega, a leader of the party, declared that should a republic be established in the future it should allow the greatest liberty in the manifestation of opinions and aspirations, "even if made by Catholics."

VICTORY FOR THE FEDERALS.

Official Report Tells of One in Chihuahua.

Washington, Dec. 15.—The Mexican federal troops have completely routed the revolutionists in Chihuahua and captured the city of Guerrero, according to a telegram received yesterday by the state department from Ambassador Wilson at Mexico City.

"This cleared the state of Chihuahua and other parts of the country," said Mr. Wilson, "of all organized resistance to the government."

TWO HENS WORTH $22,000.

Eggs of Either Mother or Daughter Bring $25 Apiece.

Philadelphia, Dec. 15.—Winner over all others of her breed Lady Washington, a raven black Orpington hen, worth $12,000, has only one of her kind as a rival, her own daughter. Her offspring is worth $10,000. Whenever either chicken is to do the commonplace thing of laying an egg, that egg is worth $25.

Both chickens are on exhibition at the fifth annual poultry show in this city. Lady Washington arrived yesterday from her home at Factoryville, Pa., accompanied by two attendants, and occupied a specially constructed coop in a specially reserved compartment.

D. F. DAVIS' UNUSUAL OFFER.

Sell Dr. Howard's Specific at Half-Price, and Guarantee a Cure.

"It isn't often that I have faith enough in the medicine put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said D. F. Davis to a Times man who dropped into his store, "but I am glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that basis."

"The Dr. Howard company, in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorizes me to sell their regular fifty-cent bottles at half price, 25 cents, and although I have sold a lot of it, and have guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory. I am still selling the specific at half price, although I cannot tell how long I shall be able to do so, and anyone who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion or a general played-out condition, ought to take advantage of this chance. You can tell your readers that if they are not satisfied with the specific they can come right back to my store and I will cheerfully refund their money."

SPEAKER CHENEY ABSENT

From Reunion of the Legislature of 1908 Tuesday Evening.

The Vermont legislature of 1908 held a reunion last evening in Representatives' hall with about 100 present. The members occupied the seats they did two years ago. Speaker Thomas C. Cheney of Morrisville was unavoidably absent but sent a letter of regret.

Several brief speeches were made and an adjournment was taken to the Pavilion hotel, where a banquet was enjoyed. Representative A. M. Fletcher of Cavendish on the part of the House, and Senator Philip of Springfield for the Senate were toastmasters and the banquet lasted until midnight. On motion of Mr. Davis of Springfield the chair appointed a committee to draft resolutions in memory of the eight members who have died during the past year. Gov. Mead, who was president of the Senate and lieutenant governor in 1908, was the guest of honor.

A Wise Lover.

The big steamship had left the pier. The young man on the tar barrel still waved his handkerchief desperately.

"Oh, what're you waiting for? Come on," said his companions, disgustedly. "I daren't," with one fearful glance backward.

"What's the matter?" "She has a field glass," said the young man.—Everybody's.

SPAVIN IN THE HORSE

This enlargement will probably increase rapidly. Once started its development continues until the size makes it plainly evident to the most inexperienced, and when they are on both hocks both hocks are spavined.

There seems to be two forms of lameness to note in bone spavin. In one form the lameness is most before driven much, or it seems to work off. In the other the reverse is the case. It grows worse while at work. In the first form the horse in traveling touches the toe first to the ground, the heel coming down slowly, the movement at the hock showing stiffness, the hip coming down a little on the other side; while the second form, the lameness increasing with work, favors the lame leg when stepping and when starting to work steps mostly on the toe, and it is well to note the fact existing in most cases of the first or cool kind is a simple case of exostosis, while the second or worse kind indicates a more serious and complicated condition.

Were it not for the obscure indications and the waste of time used in treating diseases and forms of lameness not existing, or could this time be saved and the wasted efforts and treatment directly and properly applied to the treating of the really existing spavin, I am quite sure thousands of spavined horses of to-day would be saved much horse suffering and a large amount of financial loss obviated.

When, for instance, the careful caretaker or owner notices a slight degree of heat, shortness or stiffness, peculiar action of the limb, when perhaps he knows of the slip or strain, the blow or injury, he looks for and anticipates the coming trouble. Then is the time for prompt action. Don't wait until the horse is lame, the spavin fixed. Get to work. Suspect the hock, the injury is there almost always and care and treatment won't do any harm, while it is more than likely to prevent the spavin. At the first begin treatment, give rest. This is imperative. Rest—don't drive or work, even when you only suspect the injury to do harm. Probably four or five weeks will be gone too long to rest the horse. Many will say, "I can't afford to lay him off." Be this as it may; if such is your conclusion, don't waste money for veterinary or medicine. Take the worst course and help to build the spavin.

Make applications of hot water, alternating with cold water, adding alum or some astringent Glycerine. Be liberal with the water. Then apply a good counter irritant. Some of the reliable liniments advertised for this purpose are good. Paint with iodine. Many cases do not yield even to these, and an absorbent may then be used to good advantage. Taken in the early stages, this form of treatment will be found quite satisfactory, not really curing, but removing the lameness and largely dispersing the swelling, and any center of a spavined horse accomplishing this much should be thankful. He has done all that is possible. He cannot really cure the spavin. One may, of course, be permitted to try any reasonable proposition looking to the removal or reducing of the swelling or lameness, and the absorbent and fringing iron may be used and repeated with more or less success and then remains the trying of the surgical work of tenotomy, etc. In treating spavin, or, in fact, any similar ill, attention should be given as to diet and general conditioning of the horse.

INDIAN FINED FOR DRUNK.

He Got Tangled Up With Firewater in Burlington.

Burlington, Dec. 15.—The city court has all kinds of cases, and yesterday morning a real Indian stepped out when his name was called and a warrant was read to him, charging intoxication. His name was Benjamin Capino and he hails from Pierreville, P. Q. He pleaded guilty, was fined $5 and costs, said he had no cash and was placed in jail for ten days.

Capino came to Burlington to sell fancy baskets for the Christmas trade and was discovered Tuesday evening reposing gracefully in a Church street doorway beside his stock of wares, the "firewater" of the local saloons having been his undoing.

HANGS SELF AT CELL DOOR.

Winthrop Man a Suicide in Jail at Exeter, N. H.

Exeter, N. H., Dec. 15.—Frank C. Davis, aged 50, who had been living with a daughter at Winthrop, Mass., committed suicide Tuesday at the jail by hanging himself from a door during the absence of turnkey Beverly S. McLaughlin.

Davis came last Saturday evening to the home of his father-in-law, Edward Nichols. Sunday morning in sudden frenzy he seized a hammer and aimed three blows at William Foss of Lynn, Mass., Mrs. Nichols' brother-in-law, lying upon a lounge. Davis was arraigned in court for assault with intent to kill and committed to jail.

BODY NOT CLAIMED.

Hence Body of Suicide, Joseph Champoux, Was Placed in Tomb.

Rutland, Dec. 15.—The relatives of Joseph Champoux, who committed suicide in Pittsford about a week ago by shooting himself with a revolver, have at last been located. It has been ascertained that the man has a father and two sisters but they do not claim the body and it was yesterday placed in the vault in Pittsford and will be buried in the spring.

Constable J. E. Tennien, who has been looking up the matter, received a message Monday from J. Buckner, chief of police at Northampton, Mass., stating that the police of Fall River, Mass., had learned that Champoux' father, and two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Carrier and Mrs. Furrington, lived there. Mr. Tennien later received a letter from the father saying that they did not wish to claim the body because two years ago, when his wife died, the daughter, Mrs. Carrier, became mentally unbalanced for a time with grief, and it was feared that news of the present trouble might cause a recurrence of the difficulty.

Mrs. Carrier, however, must have learned of her brother's death, for yesterday Mr. Tennien received a telegram from her asking that particulars be written to her and inquiring as to whether or not Champoux left a bank book or any valuables.
